Federal Grants during COVID-19 Crisis

Key Observations about Federal Grants during COVID-19 Crisis

- Many Federal agencies are extending their grant deadlines.
- No simple way to be notified of grant deadline extensions. Diligently check deadline dates on Grants.gov.
- Many of the CARES-Act discretionary grants are have rolling deadlines, thus subject to available funding. Apply now.
- Some Federal grants are being released with Appropriations Authority for disaster efforts.
- As with existing Federal grants many agencies as directed by the CARES Act are offering waivers for uses of funds. Important to also check to see if respective agency has offered waivers for open grants similar to existing grants.
