Below this is a white header with the GO-Biz logo and navigation links: "Advantages", "Industries", "Newsroom", "About", "Apps", and "Search". The main content area has a title "Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19)" followed by a paragraph explaining that the GO-Biz has compiled helpful information and directs users to the "California Coronavirus (COVID-19) Response website". Below this is a call to action to "Subscribe to the GO-Biz newsletter" and mentions the "California Department of Public Health". A grey section titled "Important Updates from the Governor" with a megaphone icon contains text about Governor Newsom's support for small businesses, with links to "Click here" and "OnwardCA.org". The bottom section, titled "Financial and Technical Assistance for Small Business" with a circular icon of hands holding a coin, states that resources are available throughout California for small businesses impacted by COVID-19.

COVID-19 Federal Rural Resource Guide

USDA and its Federal partners have programs that can be used to provide immediate and long-term assistance to rural communities affected by the COVID-19 outbreak. These programs can support recovery efforts for rural residents, businesses and communities through:

- technical, training, and management assistance;
- financial assistance; and
- state and local assistance.

This resource matrix organizes funding opportunities identified in the CARES Act and other federal resources that can help support rural America. Opportunities are categorized by customer and assistance type.

INNOVATION. REGIONAL COLLABORATION. JOB CREATION.

Economic Development Administration is a small, nimble agency within the U.S. Department of Commerce that provides a big impact by helping to make it easier for businesses to start and grow in the United States.

We do this by working hand-in-hand with local economic development partners to advance their locally-developed projects; projects that are tied to their region's long-term, sustainable economic development strategy.

The CARES Act provided $1.5 Billion to EDA for the Economic Adjustment Assistance Program.

The existing Notice of Funding Opportunity, PWEAA2020 on grants.gov, is being amended to include this new funding source.

Coming soon!

Capitalization or Recapitalization of Revolving Loan Funds to improve access to capital for small businesses

Recovery Strategies that develop short and long term plans to address economic dislocations such as those caused by the impact of the coronavirus pandemic

Implementation or expansion of entrepreneurial support programs to diversify economies and strengthen industry sectors

Construction of critical infrastructure and facilities that will support economic recovery and job creation

Eligible Applicants:

- State and local governments – counties, incorporated cities, special districts, JPAs, COGS, etc.
- Nonprofit organizations – working in cooperation with local government
- Institutions of higher education
- Native American tribal governments
